

Van Beurden represents a single source for all the coverage you need to control your risks and operate with fewer worries. Churches face unique insurance-coverage challenges that can include everything from liability for day-care facilities, camps and schools to Workers' Comp insurance for employees and even volunteers.

Churches

Programs Specialized for Churches

As one of the top insurance agencies in the nation, we bring an unmatched depth of resources to developing solutions for your church. Our program manager, Brian Loven, specializes in coverage for churches and has a better understanding of the exposures that church organizations face.

Control Your Workers' Compensation Expenses

Work Comp premiums represent a major portion of the cost of keeping your church accessible and welcoming. Do nothing and they can literally sink you. But with Van Beurden's Work Comp Navigator™, you can steer clear of overpayments, costly litigation and uncontrolled medical costs.

Comprehensive Programs for Your Organization:

- General liability, property, and auto
- Workers' Compensation
- Liability for church daycare facilities, schools and camps
- Employee benefits, group health, disability and life
- Excess liability, employee-related-practices liability
- Total loss control support for all group members
